

9:00 Registration and coffee

9:30 Welcome note

Deputy Director General Thomas Bustrup,
Confederation of Danish Industry

9:35 Introduction

Senior Adviser Sandro Pettineo, ITCILO

SESSION I: Global supply chains and responsible business conduct

09:40 Responsible Business Conduct and Global Supply Chains: Overview of international regulation and current policy development

Senior Adviser Christine Jøker Lohmann,
Confederation of Danish Industry

10:00 Tools to address work place related challenges: Transnational company agreements, stakeholder engagement, local engagement, code of conduct, social audits, collective action, etc.

Marie-Noelle Lopez, Planet Labor

10:20 Mapping of challenges brought by global supply chains, and how they are dealt with

Facilitated by Christine Jøker Lohmann, DI and Sandro Pettineo, ITCILO

10:50 Internal organization and due diligence on human rights: Creating a common language in a global organization in order to address sensitive topics

Director Malene Østergaard, Ethics & Human Rights, Group Compliance Danfoss

11:10 Break

SESSION II: Stakeholder perspective: How to conduct due diligence on work place related issues?

Moderated by Managing Director Renate Hornung Draus,
Confederation of German Employers

11:30 NGO perspective: OECD MNE Guidelines and the new OECD due diligence guidance as a tool to address human rights and work place related challenges

OECD Watch (TBC)

11:45 National Human Rights Institute perspective: How to conduct due diligence in global supply chains

Department Director Allan Lerberg Jørgensen,
Danish Institute for Human Rights

12:00 Trade union perspective: How to set up social dialogue in global supply chains and the benefit of transnational company agreements

Adviser Peter Waldorff,
Danish Confederation of Trade Unions

12:15 NGO perspective: Multi-stakeholder cooperation on human rights impact assessment – lessons learnt

Senior Adviser Gitte Dyrhagen,
Dan Church Aid

12:30 Discussing pros and cons on the different approaches, and how Nordic companies can benefit from collaboration and dialogue in a global context

13:00 Lunch

SESSION III:

Company perspective: Practical experience on how to lift due diligence in global supply chains into business development and daily operation

Moderated by Deputy Director Garance Pineau, MEDEF

14:00 The use of transnational company agreements as one tool among others to address due diligence and work place related challenges in global supply chains

(Swedish - TBC)

14:20 Global Compact as a tool for sustainable supply chain

(Norwegian - TBC)

14:40 Human rights in a European versus global context – lessons from UK Modern Slavery Act and how to distinguish and prioritize

Senior Manager Susanne Andersen,
Corporate Responsibility Arla Foods

15:00 Break

SESSION IV:

The Nordic approach

Moderated by Christine Jøker Lohmann, DI and Sandro Pettineo, ITCILO

15:20 Discussion and mapping of solutions – is there a Nordic approach?

16:00 Wrap up and lessons learnt

16:30 End

This project is co-funded by the European Union

The workshop is co-organised by:

Programme for Employers' Activities of the ITCILO, in partnership with BDA, MEDEF, CEOE, DI and Confindustria and with the active support of both BUSINESSEUROPE, the IOE and Global Compact Nordic Network.