GOOD GOVERNANCE

ISSA GUIDELINES, KNOWLEDGE-SHARING, AND INNOVATION

OVERVIEW

Every social security programme is imbued with public interest that demands exemplary governance in its administration. This course draws on international best-practice guidelines to assess the main principles, structures and mechanisms that promote and support good governance practices in key areas of social security administration. This is one of seven courses run in partnership with the International Social Security Association (ISSA) held simultaneously at the Turin Centre. Join a network of social security practitioners in this highly specialized course.

WHAT

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

This course uses the updated ISSA Guidelines on Good Governance as a framework for assessing challenges and identifying innovations.

- Principles for the board and management: principles, frameworks, structures, challenges and response
- Strategic planning and operational risk management: definitions and understanding of risk management activities; monitoring of internal and external events affecting social security institutions
- Actuarial soundness and internal audit: understanding actuarial measures and valuations; actuarial sustainability and investment benchmarks
- Investment management: key principles; main concepts of liquidity, risks, necessary diligence and aligning incentives; valuation of investment portfolio and measures for asset safekeeping
- Corruption and fraud in contributions and benefits: prevention and control; effectively governing rights and obligations of members and beneficiaries
- Service standards for members and beneficiaries: why service standards are relevant; how to improve service quality and key parameters
- Human resources policies: development, retention and succession; improving HR policies, defining a performance appraisal system; key components and limitations
- Investment in ICT infrastructure: evaluation of new investment proposals; ex-post evaluation and infrastructure maintenance.

WHAT WILL I BE ABLE TO DO?

- Understand core approaches to promoting and supporting good governance practices based on international best practice
- Identify roles and responsibilities of social security professionals in ensuring good governance
- Utilise the ISSA Guidelines as a framework for improved governance within national social security institutions
- Develop country-tailored innovations drawing on experience from other countries.

WHY

WHY SHOULD I JOIN?

- ISSA-accredited experts with decades of international experience in social security administration
- Join and interact with a global network of professionals from other ISSA member organizations to share learning and best practices
- Mix of training methods: lectures, plenary discussions, good practices, case studies, group work and individual exercises
- Successful participants receive an ITCILO Certificate of Achievement.

This course is one of ten eligible courses for the Diploma For Social Protection Managers. To achieve the Diploma, successful candidates must complete four out of ten courses within a five year period and undertake a capstone assessment.
