INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION AND ICC INTERNATIONAL COURT OF ARBITRATION MOOT COURT

18 – 29 MAY 2026
TURIN, ITALY

Information Note

Turn theory into advocacy—train with global experts and test your skills in an ICC-style international arbitration moot.

BACKGROUND

In today's globalised legal landscape, understanding the intricacies of international commercial arbitration is a crucial skill for legal professionals managing cross-border disputes. The training course International Commercial Arbitration and ICC International Court of Arbitration Moot Court provides participants with a thorough grounding in arbitration procedures and rules, along with the opportunity to apply their knowledge through a practical moot court exercise.

This two-week intensive programme offers a blend of theoretical insights and hands-on learning. Over the course of the programme, participants will engage with key topics such as arbitration rules under the Singapore Convention, the principles of transparency in arbitration as outlined by UNCITRAL, and comparative perspectives on arbitral institutions beyond the ICC. The curriculum also includes a moot court exercise during the second week, where participants will prepare and present arguments in a simulated arbitration setting, complementing the theoretical content covered earlier.

Held at the ITCILO Campus in Turin, this course provides an ideal environment for collaboration and networking, enabling participants to learn directly from experienced professionals and exchange ideas with peers from across the globe. The programme equips attendees with the knowledge and practical tools needed to navigate the complexities of international arbitration with confidence.
