During the five-day training course participants will have the opportunity to update knowledge, share experiences & case studies, including the latest trends on platform economy. The training sessions will be guided by top experts. The activity is designed to bring together government experts from many countries to explore the income and job creation opportunities offered by digital labour platforms, as well as the challenges and dynamics related to their regulation and governance.

Course Highlights

The five-day learning programme intends to provide a comprehensive overview of:

- The diversity of models in the platform economy
- Opportunities and challenges for decent work in the platform economy;
- Emerging practices in regulating platform work;
- Social dialogue in promoting decent work in the platform economy.
- the regional and local platforms
- Current good practices.

How is the event organized?

The face-to-face training course will be participatory and will be structured in a way to facilitate the presentation and analysis of all relevant aspects in law and practice related to platform work.

National experiences and case studies will be at the core of the knowledge sharing.

Who will attend?

Representatives of Governments (Ministry of Labour, Social Policies and Social Security).
