E-LEARNING COURSE ON FUNDAMENTALS OF INDUSTRIAL AND EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS

26 OCTOBER – 4 DECEMBER 2020
6 WEEKS, 6 HRS/WEEK
INTRODUCTION

This e-learning course has been designed to expose participants to the key principles and concepts relating to industrial and employment relations. In particular, participants will learn about the ILO and the international labour standards system, the international legal framework for industrial relations, introduction to industrial relations, collective bargaining and labour dispute systems, tripartite social dialogue, introduction to labour law, and key labour market institutions.

Participants will have the freedom to choose when to access the e-platform of this e-learning course and engage in the different learning activities. A tutor will provide guidance to the participants in the completion of the assignments and will also facilitate their exchange in a dedicated forum.

OBJECTIVES

At the end of the course participants will be able to:

- Describe the ILO key principles and the international labour standards system;
- Become familiar with the origins and the evolution of industrial relations;
- Reflect on the role of government, employers’ and workers’ organizations in industrial relations;
- Describe the functioning of collective bargaining and its implications for the social partners;
- Become acquainted with labour dispute systems;
- Demonstrate the key concepts relating to tripartite social dialogue and the role of the actors of tripartite social dialogue;
- Become familiar with key labour market institutions with a focus on developing countries;
- Recognize good practices of industrial relations and/or social dialogue in response to COVID-19.

PARTICIPANTS’ PROFILE

- Government, workers’ and employers’ representatives;
- Practitioners in the field of industrial and employment relations from the public and private sectors;
- Human resources managers; personnel in human resources departments dealing with industrial and employment relations;
- Labour administration and labour inspection officials;
- ILO staff from field offices and technical cooperation projects;
- Staff from United Nations agencies and other international organizations;
- Consultants, researchers and graduate students.

Note: The ITCILO promotes equality of opportunities and strongly encourages women’s applications.
CONTENTS

The course will be divided into 6 modules on the following topics:
• Introduction to the ILO and the international labour standards system;
• Introduction to industrial relations;
• Collective bargaining and labour dispute systems;
• Tripartite social dialogue;
• Introduction to labour law;
• Key labour market institutions.

In addition, live sessions will take place on the following topics:
• ILO standard-setting role;
• Collective bargaining machinery;
• Collective bargaining trends;
• Social dialogue: actors, types, levels, scope;
• Good practices of social dialogue in response to COVID-19.

FORMAT AND METHODOLOGY

This e-learning course will be held entirely online. It is composed of 6 modules. Each module contains texts, videos, exercises, quizzes and/or assignments. Participants can learn from any location, any time of the day or night as the course is delivered through distance learning. Participants will be asked to make comments on specific topics and to discuss different issues in a dedicated forum, and will be required to complete quizzes and assignments relating to the different modules.

In addition, a total of 5 live sessions will take place during the course. These interactive sessions will focus on key issues relating to industrial and employment relations (see list of topics in Contents section above). The live sessions will be conducted through video conferencing software (a link with instructions will be provided to participants). Participants who are unable to participate in all live sessions will still be able to watch the full video recordings on the dedicated e-platform.
LANGUAGE

The course will be held in English. Participants should therefore have a good command of English.

DURATION AND COURSE LOAD

This course will have a total duration of 6 weeks. The total course load of 36 hours requires an average of 6 hours of study per week.

FEES AND APPLICATIONS

Participation cost (900 Euros) including tuition, including access to the e-campus, and participation in live sessions and webinars.

To apply, please complete the online application form, not later than 4 October 2020, on this link: https://oarf2.itcilo.org/MIF/A9713297/en

The application should be accompanied by a letter from the sponsoring organization committing to cover participation cost.

For information regarding payment, cancellation and refunds, please visit this webpage: www.itcilo.org/applications-payments-cancellation
WITHDRAWAL, CANCELLATION POLICY, AND REFUNDS FOR OPEN COURSES

If an enrolled participant wishes or must withdraw from a course, they may choose to apply to a different course or be substituted by another candidate. The participant must notify the Centre, in writing, of their decision at least 14 days prior to the start date of the course. Cancellation of participation in regular courses will result in the following penalties:

- 14 days or more prior to the start date of the course: No penalty, 100% refund of amount paid less applicable bank charges
- 8 to 13 days prior to the start date of the course: Penalty of 50% of course price, refund of residual amount paid (if any) less applicable bank charges
- 7 days or less prior to the start date of the course: Penalty of 100% of course price.

INFO

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION PLEASE CONTACT

International Training Centre of the ILO
Programme on Social Protection, Governance and Tripartism (SPGT)
Viale Maestri del Lavoro, 10
10127 Turin – Italy

Mr. Fernando Fonseca
Activity Manager
T +39 011 693 6917 / F+39 011 639 1922
f.fonseca@itcilo.org
www.itcilo.org