WHO

WHO ATTENDS THIS COURSE?

The course is designed for executives, managers, planners and other responsible professionals working in the field of pension and social protection policy and administration. The training will include a diverse range of participants from both in government and non-governmental sectors, including employers' and workers' organizations and civil society organizations.

METHODOLOGY

The course will employ a combination of group work, e-lectures, panel discussions and interactive exercises. An eCampus platform will be used to support participants' preparation before, during and after the course. Technology will be integrated throughout the course to ensure interactivity.

HOW

The course consists of a number of online modules offered through the eCampus online platform to be completed over a period of six weeks for an estimated total of 60 learning hours.

The course is broken down into three phases:

- Pre-course learning: Flexible (asynchronous) self-guided online learning on eCampus and an end of phase assessment
- 'Real time' learning: Live interactive sessions and engaging video presentations by highly experienced trainers, blended with individual and collaborative group exercises, peer-to-peer assessment and online technical forums on eCampus
- End of course assignment: Individual assignment applying cutting-edge technical knowledge to the participants' organization. Participants who successfully complete all assessments and the final assignment will receive a Certificate of Achievement.

WHY

WHY SHOULD I JOIN?

- Put learning into practice through an Integrated Applied Exercise focused on your own national context
- Participants join and interact with a diverse network of professionals engaging in pension issues
- The course uses a mix of online training methods: lectures, plenary discussions, good practices, case studies, group work, and individual exercises.
