ENDING VIOLENCE AND HARASSMENT IN THE WORLD OF WORK

KNOW THE FRAMEWORK, OWN THE PRINCIPLES, ADVOCATE FOR CHANGE

OVERVIEW

SNAPSHOT OF THE COURSE

Violence and harassment in the world of work are a threat to the dignity, security, health and well-being of everyone, affecting not only workers and employers, but also their families, communities, economies and society at large. In June 2019, through the adoption of ILO Convention no. 190 and Recommendation no. 206, the global community made it clear that such phenomenon cannot be tolerated, and the world needs to be equipped to put a stop to it. What are the transformative elements which make these new instruments truly ground-breaking? What is the language used and why are such choices important towards tackling this phenomenon effectively? What are the provisions, the tools, the strategies? What are the roles and responsibilities of different stakeholders in the world of work? What are the good practices out there, and where to start when it comes to sensitizing others, building engagement and advocating or positive change? Find out in this 6-week e-learning journey.
