WHAT

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

- Identify mega-trends and drivers: to learn in what ways these may shape the future of social protection and how international agendas can drive change at the national level.
- Sharpen strategic thinking and vision: to ensure that these are centred on the shared core values and principles that underpin all social protection work.
- Leverage human capital for inclusive leadership: leading the way to harness the power of the people within social security organisations and the ones they serve.
- Resolve conflicts through dialogue: further social dialogue, conciliation and mediation skills to help leaders work through these in inclusive and effective ways.
- Harness emerging technologies: learn to identify and make the best use of emerging technologies, appreciating how these can be applied to social protection.
- Optimising business processes for improved performance: exercising dynamism and systems-thinking to ensure that business processes are optimised and make best use of available technologies.
- Managing change by driving innovation: leading from the front while making sure no one is left behind when facing uncertain times is a considerable challenge. Managing change, while embracing innovation and leading cohesive teams are essential characteristics for effective leadership.
- Inspiring and motivating others: finding and amplifying one's voice through effective communication to inspire and motivate others is the very essence of what turns people into leaders, and leaders into agents of change.
