MANAGEMENT OF VOCATIONAL TRAINING CENTRES

OVERVIEW

SNAPSHOT OF THE COURSE

The course, which is part of the Diploma of Advanced Studies on skills development, organized jointly by the ITCILO and the Haute Ecole fédérale en Formation Professionnelle, and in particular its CAS 3 – Intervention in Skills Development Mechanisms programme, offers a systemic management approach and examines practical concepts and skills required to prepare vocational training centres for the challenges of the future of work. This course is intended to facilitate the development of a holistic understanding of the management of vocational training centres.

This training course is part of the ITCILO's portfolio on Skills Development, which aims, across the world, to build the necessary capacities to support the implementation of TVET programmes and skills development.

WHAT

WHICH TOPICS ARE COVERED IN THIS COURSE?

This course is designed to facilitate the development of a holistic understanding of the management of vocational training centres with sessions on:

- The strategic management of a vocational training centre;
- The responsiveness of a vocational training centre to labour market needs;
- PPP and the relationship between vocational training centres and industry;
- The financial sustainability of vocational training centres: autonomy and self-financing.

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

At the end of the programme, participants will have increased their technical knowledge to improve the functioning of vocational training centres. In particular, they will have:

- Increased their understanding of management concepts, by examining the management of vocational training centres from a quality-based perspective;
- Examined the management challenges related to a vocational training centre;
- Developed an in-depth understanding of the role of the centre in skills development, the assessment and recognition of skills and transition from school-to-work processes.

WHAT WILL I BE ABLE TO DO?

Participants will be connected to an international network of skills development professionals. They will be able to improve their ability to analyse and manage their vocational training centres by:

- Correctly analysing the bottlenecks and challenges at their own centres;
- Identifying the main issues that allow them to respond to labour market demands;
- Drawing up a strategic development plan for their centres;

- Strengthening the economic model of their institution, by assessing the services and products that can be provided by their centres to the labour market.

WHY

WHY SHOULD I REGISTER?

- The course has an approach that focuses, in the initial distance learning phase, on understanding the conceptual framework of the management of vocational training centres;
- During the second phase, in face-to-face modality, using the theoretical knowledge acquired during the distance phase, participants will be able to develop concrete skills related to the work of managers of VTC and to expand on this through collaboration and discussions with the experts scheduled for the various in-person sessions and through the planned group work.

WHO

WHO ATTENDS THIS COURSE?

- Directors and managers of vocational training centres;
- Political decision makers and technical advisors of Ministries working in the field of managing vocational training centres;
- Members of sectoral management teams, national TVET authorities or of similar institutions;
- Representatives of workers and employers' organizations involved in providing vocational training services;
- Experts and technical staff at CSOs, NGOs and other civil society stakeholders working in the field of skills development and TVET.
