PROMOTING DISABILITY INCLUSION

MAKE THE CHANGE HAPPEN

OVERVIEW

SNAPSHOT OF THE COURSE

The United Nations Disability Inclusion Strategy (UNDIS) provides the foundation for sustainable and transformative progress on disability inclusion, across both programmes and operations, and through all pillars of the work of the United Nations: peace and security, human rights, and development.

'I want the United Nations to lead by example and invite you to join me in moving decisively to achieve the goals of the United Nations Disability Inclusion Strategy'
United Nations Secretary-General, António Guterres

Through the UNDIS country team and entity focal point capacity-building programme, participants will explore how to successfully promote disability inclusion through the UNDIS framework. The course includes live virtual sessions with international experts and self-guided online modules, covering strategies and tools for identifying and addressing obstacles to achieving disability inclusion in their work context. The programme has been collaboratively designed by the ITCILO, the ILO-Gender, Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Branch, and the Disability Inclusion Team in the Executive Office of the Secretary-General.
