Relax and explore

On campus, you can do more. Stay up-to-date with all the latest social and cultural events on campus. Sign up for our email newsletter here and never miss a beat!

IN THE CAMPUS

- Recycled entertainment makes the coffee lounge a pleasant place to meet and relax in the evenings.
- Although an eStudyHubroom has videoconferencing, the TV lounge fits our other major sports events as well.
- We have facilities and equipment for you to play football, tennis and table tennis.
- You can relax with your pet in a quiet area in the campus gym. An instructor runs a group exercise class every day 8 am and 5 pm, and always welcome to use the exercise equipment.

OUTSIDE

- Every weekend, you can just sit outdoors in a major international park, tennis, football, or World Cup, as well as a variety of other clubs like the Italian, Italian, Swiss or Portuguese.
- Almost every week there is a significant tour of Turin, a beautiful and well-attended attraction.
- The City of Turin has created the "International" for people to visit, international and local, both working weekly, new international and local, and new international and local, international about places of worship to be kept.

Growing a greener generation

We green innovation will be producing the present (and even the future).

From our Strategic Plan to our Policy Statement on the Environment, the Torino Centre aims to protect natural resources, human and economic resources. These institutional documents are our roadmap for a more sustainable future.

Every year since 2014, the ITCILO has aimed to contribute to the UN Sustainable Development Goals. The Sustainable Development Goals are a set of 17 goals that guide our work and our commitment to the world.

The Torino Centre is a member of the United Nations Global Compact.

In 2015, the Torino Centre signed an agreement with the United Nations. The Torino Centre will be working with the United Nations to promote sustainable development and to contribute to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

FUTURE OF WORK

YOUNG PEOPLE THINKING AHEAD

For its 100th anniversary, the ILO is inviting young people from all over the world to a summer event on the future of work.

Our vision for the future of work

This initiative aims to ignite innovate dialogues, training, capacity building support, and knowledge management connected to the Future of Work. This virtual space serves as an aggregated entry point for projects, ideas, and reflections related to the Future of Work project at the ITCILO.

It is rooted in four guiding pillars:

- 1 Dialogue events, connected to the initiative's thematic priorities;
- 2 Training events in Turin, Geneva, or in the field;
- 3 Knowledge management facility, integrating all resources used in dialogue and training events;
- 4 Innovation fund, supporting experiential learning modalities.

We strive to achieve a brighter future that works for everyone

We're looking for empathetic innovators. Mindful trailblazers. Those who are equally driven by heart and intellect, curiosity and logic. People who are eager to enlarge their perspectives, energize progress, and spark meaningful change for the future. If that sounds like you, you'll feel at home at TSD.

No two TSD students are alike. Every year, our Master's courses welcome recent university graduates seeking careers in development and professionals from the public sector—including the UN, EU, and NGOs—as well as private enterprises.

We transform learning. You reshape the world

At TSD, we promote a culture of experiential, results-based learning. That means you're encouraged to participate in class, apply your skills in research projects, and complete assignments through our online platform. Our Master's courses are blended and intensive. You'll work online, in the classroom, and in the field. Here's the plan of action:

Online

Start with preparatory modules on our online platform, perfect for participants with diverse entry profiles.

Classroom

Dive deeper into the issues through lectures, discussions, and team projects.

Project

Complete individual research with the help of your director, professors, and tutor.

Qualified students thrive at TSD, regardless of income

Tuition fees range from €8,500 to €9,000. Partial scholarships, funded by public and private sponsors, allow students from developing and transitional countries to focus on their studies, not their finances.

LET'S GET STARTED

Here's what we need from you:

- Bachelor's degree from a recognized university-level academic institution.
- Evidence of English proficiency.

STUDIED OUTSIDE OF ITALY?

You'll need to request a dichiarazione di valore—declaration of value—from the Italian embassy in the country where your diploma was issued. They'll ask for:

- Legalized bachelor's degree and transcript.
- Italian translation of bachelor's degree and transcript.

Bring the declaration, legalization, and translation with you to Turin.

Bureaucratic and administrative processes can be stressful. That's why we guide you, every step of the way.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

Take a step toward your future

The Centre's diverse and talented community is the foundation of our success. We value agility, teamwork, and imagination.

VACANCIES

Toward a future that works for everyone

About 170 permanent staff members come from more than 35 countries. Staff members are experts in their respective fields, including capacity building, employment, and development. The Centre's trainers are specialists in innovative learning methodologies.
